LOCAL NEWS.

Born, to the wife of Jerry Profit, Feb. 26th, a daughter—Emma E.

Born, March 1st, to the wife of A. C. Swango, a son, weight 12 pounds—Walter Lewis.

Henry F. Pierrat, of this place, has accepted a temporary position with T. & F. Day, and is now riding for them.

The little son of Wm. Lawson had his thigh accidentally broken last Saturday. His horse ran away and threw him against a fence.

Canada Little writes from Arnoldsville, Mo., to send THE HERALD to his father, Mr. J. H. Smith, who will take care of it for him.

Gravely Evans writes from Camden that his wife killed a child, and that she is now in the hospital.

Carline Mercury, Eugene Lawson, of Headquarters, was not in the office in Menzies county, some time since, is getting along fine, and will be able to attend court there in March.

Married—On Thursday February 25th, at the residence of the bride's father, Thomas H. Henshaw, in Lee county, Edward Bradley, of Wolfe county, to Miss Nannie Henshaw.

It is expected by those who ought to know, that we will have a large number of buyers here from below on our next regular stock sale day, Thursday March 10th. Don't forget the day.

Mr. Sutton, who sometime since withdrew from the Benviewville Enterprise, has again returned, and his return is undoubtedly greatly improved by his geographical appearance and infuse new life into its local columns.

Rev. J. T. Pierrat will preach at the old Grassy church, in Benviewville, on the second Sunday in this month, at 2 o'clock p. m., and Sunday at 11 a. m., and at the old Long schoolhouse on Saturday night.

David Moore, of this place, has been called to Carter county to tune a half dozen pianos. He is a very skillful tuner, and the towns closer possess pianos, it is quite complimentary to Mr. Moore's skill, and he appreciates it.

Green T. Little, of Hutchins, Texas, sends us a dollar for a year's subscription, and writes: "I do not want to see a cross mark on my paper either before or after my name." We regret that we have not space for his entire letter.

A letter from Judge Caleb May, Towle, Dakota territory, is unavoidably crowded out of this issue. It is a full column full of "Arkansas," written by James M. Nickell, is also left over, but will appear as soon as we can make room for it.

John C. M. Day, the good looking promoter of Hargis, in Benviewville, spent Saturday and Sunday in Hazel Green, visiting his brother, J. T. Day, and he did not forget to bring a good list of subscribers, for which he has our thanks.

The initial number of the Crawford County, published by the Crawford County, Quin, at Crawford, Texas, has been received, and entered upon our exchange list. It is a six column full, first printed and well edited. Mr. McQuinn is a brother of John McQuinn, of this county, and formerly lived here himself.

To poison a well is one of the worst of crimes. It is worse to poison the fountain of life for one's self and for posterity. Often by carelessness or neglect or inheritance this has been done. Aye's Sarsaparilla goes back of the symptoms, attacks the system from the blood, the vital stream, and restores appetite, strength and health.

Asbury James, son of S. P. James, and Miss Mary Edwards, daughter of Dr. J. P. James, were married at the residence of the bride's father on Wednesday night, the 24th day of February, at 10 o'clock, by the Rev. J. T. Pierrat officiating. The groom is a steady, industrious young farmer, and the bride one of the prettiest beauties in Kentucky. In their realization of love's young dream, they have the good wishes of all who know them, and who know that they are a happy one, and no jays but those filled with sweet music ever find the way to their happy home.

The opening article in the Southern Review for March is by R. T. Purrett, of Louisville. It is the first of a series of three, and the Kentucky resolutions of 1798 and 1799 Colonel Purrett gives a short sketch of the political situation in 1798, in order to make clear the significance of these famous declarations, and follows this statement with a copy of the original paper as drafted by Mr. Jefferson, and also the changes made in this draft by Mr. Madison, and a facsimile of the copy adopted and published by order of the Kentucky legislature. Accompanying these is a facsimile, slightly reduced, of a letter written by Thomas Jefferson to Mr. Breckinridge in 1823.

WOLFE COUNTY.

By Alice Amyx.

A few short years ago, my friends, we had no churches towering high.

With sweetest gloom and light, no college greened our mountain tops.

With gleaming spire so grand, no factory was a church to us.

By our small feeble land.

Our school house was a small affair, our children there could not attain.

Our people then would not believe that energy and will.

With more improvements still.

But through the gloom there burst a ray of sunshine, oh, so clear!

It placed the hearts of dormant ones, and chased away their fears.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.

Then we saw the people of the land, and they were not the same.
